

Alternative Archives

Exploring Digital Research Avenues in Times of Isolation

Marta Podvolotskaya, Rafet Koca – 2021

Title	Link	Language	Founders	Aim & Content
Arşıva Kurd	http://www.arsivakurd.org/index.php	Predominantly Kurdish (Kurmançî)	Collective	Website with Kurdish publications. Several newspapers and periodicals also from diaspora. Includes e.g. women's periodicals such as Jujin and Roza which appeared in Istanbul in 1990s.
TÜSTAV, Turk. leftist/socialist periodicals	https://www.tustav.org/sureli-yayinlar-arsivi/	(Ottoman) Turkish	Feridun Gürgöz	Digital archive of leftist, socialist periodicals from the Ottoman as well as the Republican period.
Archive of Turk. feminist magazines (Pazartesi & Kaktüs)	http://www.pazartesidergisi.com/	Turkish	Collective	Digital archive of the mentioned women's periodicals which appeared in the 1980s, 1990s and 2000s.
Historical Jewish Press	https://www.nli.org.il/en/discover/newspapers/jpress	Hebrew, Arabic, Ladino, Yiddish, French	NLI, Tel Aviv University	This archive includes newspapers in Ladino; French, etc. from the Ottoman Empire, such as L'Aurore, La Epoca and El Tiempo.
Ottoman-Greek newspaper "Sakoulidis"	http://medusa.libver.gr/jspui/handle/123456789/3705	Greek	Public Central Library of Veria	Digital archive of the Greek newspaper "Sakoulidis" in Istanbul in the Ottoman Empire
Ottoman-Greek newspaper "Anthemousa"	http://anthemion.phs.uoa.gr/index.php/en/	Greek	History dept. University of Athens	Digital archive of the Greek newspaper "Anthemousa" in Istanbul in the Ottoman Empire (Registration required)
Ottoman local newspapers (by provinces)	http://www.osmanlicagazeteler.org/index.php	Ottoman Turkish	Ömer Faruk Köseoğlu	Website with local newspapers from various provinces in Anatolia. Partly transcribed. Searchable.
2mi3museum (A family archive of the Ott. Emp. & Turkiye)	https://www.2mi3museum.com/	English	Dimitri Daravanoglu	Online museum of a mixed Armenian, Italian, Greek family living in Turkey since the 1800s. Including the (short) stories of the families, family photographs and photographs of some artefacts.
Archives of Levantine Heritage Foundation	http://www.levantineheritage.com/latest.html	mostly English	LHF	Contains family histories, photographs, documents, and ephemera on the topic of the Levantine communities in the Ottoman Empire from 17th through 20th centuries.
Hagop Ayvaz Archive (Hrant Dink Foundation)	https://archive.hrantdink.org/	English, Turkish, Armenian	Hagop Ayvaz, Hrant Dink Foundation	The personal archive of Armenian actor, director, writer and publisher Hagop Ayvaz with around 300 theatrical play manuscripts in Ottoman, Armenian and Turkish, more than 300 printed texts of plays in three languages, more than 500 periodicals, magazines and brochures in Armenian and Turkish, around 12,000 photographs, posters, cartoons, newspaper and magazine clips, invitations, drawings and postcards.
Jelle Verheij's late Ottoman archive	https://www.jelleverheij.net/index.html	English	Jelle Verheij, Historian	Personal archive: History and historical geography of Turkey and the late Ottoman Empire & Ottoman-Armenian-Kurdish relations before the First World War
TÜSTAV, Library of the Turk. Diaspora Left (Europe)	https://www.tustav.org/kutuphane/yurtdisi-kutuphanesi/	German, English, Turkish	Tarik Özen	Library and archive of the Turkish left and workers abroad (mostly in Germany) - ATTF, FIDEF, TDF, GDF. Documents and books of various leftist organizations and authors.
Library of the Deutsche Morgenländische Gesellschaft	http://menadoc.bibliothek.uni-halle.de/ssq/nav/index/all	Several (Arabic, German, French)	MLU Halle & DMG	Around 3,050 volumes of titles belonging to the Middle East and North Africa Special Area Collection of the University and State Library Saxony-Anhalt in Halle, includes several dictionaries and grammars.
Gertrude Bell Archive (on the Middle East)	http://gertrudebell.ncl.ac.uk/	English	Newcastle University	A large number of photos, diaries, and letters by Gertrude Bell, who was a British archeologist, traveler, writer and influential political officer. She explored and mapped British imperial policy-making in Mesopotamia, Arabia, Asia Minor and Syria-Palestine. This archive might be of importance for studies of (post-)colonial societies of the Middle East.
Krikor-Guerguerian-Archive (on the Ott. Emp. & 1915 atrocities)	https://wordpress.clarku.edu/querguerianarchive/	English, French, (Ottoman) Turkish	Guerguerian & Armenian patriarchate archiv	Archive of materials collected by Krikor Guerguerian, including thousands of original Ottoman documents and Guerguerian's extensive, unpublished writings on the atrocities of 1915.
Francophone newspapers from the Ottoman Empire	https://gallica.bnf.fr/html/und/presse-et-revues/presse-ottomane?mode=desktop	French	Gallica - BnF/National Library France	An archive of more than 30 French different newspapers published beginning from the late Ottoman era, from the 1830s to the Republican era.

Granth Sanjeevani Archive (on India)	https://granthsanjeevani.com/jspui/	English, also Sanskrit and others	The Asiatic Society of Mumbai	Granth Sanjeevani has over 20,000 books, newspapers, manuscripts, maps, journals, government publications and reports. Over 25 million pages digitized from the treasures of the Asiatic Society, Mumbai.
Ajam Digital Archive	https://archive.ajammc.com/	English	Ajam Media Collective & contribution by users	User-generated and crowd-sourced digital archive that promotes research on 20th-century life across the Persianate world.
Arabian Gulf Digital Archive	https://www.agda.ae/en	Arabic, English	The AGDA Team, UAE	An online archive that has been created to showcase historical and cultural material that tells the story of the rich, intriguing and complex history of the Arabian Gulf.
Open Central Asian Photo Archives	https://ca-photoarchives.net/	Russian	Eur'Orbem Research Group, Uni. Gent, Uni. Sorbonne & others	document and record history from below—how it was actually lived, experienced, and understood. It is precisely these histories that were ignored in favor of tales that focused exclusively on wars and revolutions, rarely giving us a sense of how life was lived amidst it all.
East View Information Services	https://www.eastview.com/	English	The Company "East View"	A leading provider of native and translated foreign language information products and services, including Russian, Chinese, and Arabic databases, print periodicals, books and microforms.
Camera Ottomano, Photo Archive	https://cameraottomana.ku.edu.tr/gallery/	English	Ömer M. Koç	Photography and Modernity in the Ottoman Empire 1840-1914. A selection of photographs of the exhibition at ANAMED in 2015. Unique albums in possession of Ömer Koç. Many photographs can be viewed without any beforehand permission; but a permission is needed (via e-mail) to access the whole gallery.
Marxists Internet Archive	https://www.marxists.org/	English, but many other languages available	Collective	A very large archive of works of Marxists, anarchists and other leftist world traditions in the world. Library, history archive and encyclopedia. Available in many languages. It is possible to find works of many revolutionary leaders and theorists in other languages, from the Middle East to Latin America.
Abkhilekh	https://www.abkhilekh-patal.in/jspui/	English	National Archives of India (NAI)	The archive contains the reference media of more than 2.7 million files held by the National Archives of India. Over 73270 digitized records are available for online access.
Democracy Museum Archive	http://democracymuseum.ru/archive/tags/17	Russian	The Anatoly Sobchak Foundation	The Anatoly Sobchak Foundation and the creative studio "History of the Future" present a virtual journey into a short but eventful moment in the history of Russia in the 20th century.
The Archive of Armenian Genocide Museum archive	http://www.genocide-museum.am/rus/	English, Turkish, Armenian, Russian, French	The AGMI Foundation	An archive by the Armenian Genocide Museum [also Institute & Foundation] on the Armenian genocide, the catastrophes of 1915. Documents, periodicals, photo collections, maps, oral stories, letters and other artefacts are available.
Наша Абхазия (Archive of Abkhazia: "Our Abkhazia").	http://abkhazeti.info/history/History.php	Russian	Наша Абхазия, Unknown (?)	A historical archive on Abkhazia. Maps, historical documents, lapidary inscriptions, news collection and photo albums on Abkhazia and its history is available. The website also offers considerable information on the war and genocide in Abkhazia.
Houshamadyan Open Digital Archive	https://www.houshamadyan.org/home.html	English, Armenian, Turkish	Houshamadyan e. V. and its partners	Collections of memory items preserved by Armenian families all around the world, as well as concise microhistories of these families. Possible to find content on the historical events, such as the genocides. Photos also available.
Syrian Archive	https://syrianarchive.org/	English, Arabic	A project of Mnemonic, a non-profit organization	A Syrian led project that aims to preserve, enhance and memorialise documentation of human rights violations and other crimes committed by all parties to conflict in Syria for use in advocacy, justice and accountability.
Türkische Forschungsbibliothek (Uni-Halle)	http://menadoc.bibliothek.uni-halle.de/landau/nav/index/all	German, English, French, Turkish	Jacob M. Landau	Various-type historical documents of different political tendencies (political party programs, political research books, radio speeches, meeting notes, and articles & books by prominent political figures of Turkey. Time span: Mostly from the Early Republican Era to 2000s.
Partition Archive 1947	https://www.1947partitionarchive.org/	English	Partition 1947 Archive Team	An archive that helps you record & share oral histories of the world's largest mass refugee crisis - 1947 Indo-Pak Partition.
The Long Emergency Archive	https://www.longemergency.demx.in/	English	Merian-Tagore International Centre of Advanced Studies, ICAS:MP, BMBF	A series of oral history interviews documenting journalistic praxis around the time of the Indian emergency (1975-1977). Also includes a selection of material from this period such as films, cartoons, news clippings, government documents, and court judgements.
Diarna	http://archive.diarna.org/	English	Diarna Team, partners and individual voluntary contributors	Diarna is working to digitally preserve the physical remnants of Jewish history throughout the region. In a race against time to capture site data and record place-based oral histories before even the memories of these communities are lost.

BannedThought.net Archive	https://www.bannedthought.net/	Mainly English; docs in other languages also available	BannedThought.net (Not known exactly)	A website which is devoted to defending the freedom of speech about progressive ideas, ideas which have been suppressed in one way or another anywhere in the world. Completely independent and totally unaffiliated with any political party, organization, network, or alliance, anywhere in the world.
Zochrot, an archive of Palestine	https://www.zochrot.org/	Arabic, English, Hebrew	The NGO itself	This is technically the website of the NGO known as "Zochrot". Its archive is totally worth examining. It can be quite useful for the research on relevant topics. A good number of articles, books, media coverages, booklets, maps, videos and photographs (of looted houses and destroyed localities) on Nakhba (The 1948 Palestinian Exodus), Palestinian refugees and the ongoing injustices of Nakhba.
Circassian World Archive, CW	https://www.circassianworld.com/circassia/historical-circassia	English	Circassian Research Group CW	A website created to help reduce this deficit in Caucasian Studies by gathering, compiling and publishing academic and journalistic works on the Circassians. A large amount of content on the Circassian history, republics, diaspora, culture and languages. Interviews, headlines, and publications available as well as historical photos.
Çerkes Araştırmaları (Circassian Studies Archive)	http://cerkesarastirmalari.com/en/	Turkish, English, Circassian, Russian	The Circassian Studies Group, Murat Topçu	A platform/database where many (primary) sources on the Circassian Studies are collected. Books, periodicals, Ottoman and Russian archives, photos and maps.
Archive of "Krokodil" (Soviet satirical magazine) 1922-2005	https://croco.uno/	Russian	Unknown	An archive of the issues of the Soviet satirical magazine "Krokodil" from 1922 to 2005.
History of Kyrgyzstan thorough photography	http://www.foto.kg/	Russian	Union of Russia's Photojournalists and information agency «Photo.kg»	Project collects pre- and postsoviet photographs (until 2000) and aims to popularize Kyrgyz history through photographs. Organizers also plan on organizing events and exhibits.
The "Old Gazette" Archive	http://www.oldgazette.ru	Russian	Non-academics, volunteers, collaborative effort.	An online collection of the old Soviet & Russian newspapers. Especially for those interested in the history of the USSR, the history of the war, the pre-war period.
The LUMS Digital Archive	https://lums.edu.pk/news/lums-digital-archive-exploring-alternate-histories	Website is in English, sources are in other languages.	Dr. Ali Raza and Dr. Ali Usman Qasmi, Associate Professors at the Mushtaq Ahmad Gurmani School of Humanities and Social Sciences, have curated the Digital Archive at LUMS	This archive is related to the Partition of India. Lahore University of Management Sciences-curated digital archive in a collaboration with the Technology and Peace Initiative (TPI), the Archive is a research repository that aims at collecting, cataloging and preserving rare material (books, pamphlets, newspapers and other items) of historical significance and making them available to researchers. In particular, the Archive focuses on events, groups, movements and personalities relating to broader historical, political and cultural trends in South Asia, with an emphasis on preserving the accounts of marginalised and subaltern groups. In doing so, the archive hopes to bring researchers, students and colleagues together to explore alternate histories. The LUMS Digital Archive has four projects on its website titled; Partition Testimonies: Ishtiaq Ahmad Collection, Partition Abduction 1947, Punjabi Literary Journals and Reports on Anti-Ahmadiyya Violence. The first project is a collection of partition interviews that span both sides of the border. Generously donated by Professor Ishtiaq Ahmad, the two hundred interviews explore themes of violence, communal relations, migration and longing. The second project, Partition Abductions 1947, uses archival material to map the abductions of women and children during the Partition. The map identifies both the areas and the number of victims down to the village level. It hopes to make the data specific down to the tehsil level. The third project, is a collection of Punjabi literary journals donated by fiction writer, Julien Columneau. This collection of Punjabi Literary journals features key publications from the 1950s and 1960s that provide a fascinating insight into Punjabi print worlds in West Punjab. The fourth project is a collection of excerpts from the record of the daily proceedings of the court of inquiry, which was constituted to probe into the violence against Ahmadis and the imposition of Martial Law in Lahore March 1953.
Archives of DAI (Deutsches Archäo. Institut) Istanbul	https://arachne.uni-koeln.de/drupal/?q=de_DE/node/6	German	DAI & Uni Köln	A digital archive of the German Archeological Institute (coop. with Uni Köln) consisting of visuals of many historical sites, buildings, archeo. findings and monuments. The Istanbul archive is quite large with content on various Byzantine and Ottoman Empire periods. Also a noteworthy Bildarchiv for Cairo, Rome and Madrid is available.
The Machiel Kiel Photographic Archive	http://www.nit-istanbul.org/kielarchive/index.php	English	Prof. Machiel Kiel and the Netherlands Institute in Turkey (NIT)	Created for the most part between the 1960s and 90s, the archive contains visual documentation of many monuments that have not survived, or have been significantly altered in, the second half of the twentieth century. Monuments from Turkey and the Balkan countries that were part of the Ottoman Empire in the past.

Afghan Media Resource Center (AMRC)	https://archive.org/details/afghanmediaresourcecenter	English	AMRC was founded in 1986 by a team of Afghan media workers in Peshawar during the Soviet-Afghan war with funding from Boston University. AMRC was established to allow Afghans to document the war throughout the country for an international audience. Afghans from all political parties, ethnic groups, and regions were trained by the director of AMRC, Haji Sayed Daud, in print journalism, photojournalism, and video news production to capture and disseminate material for international agencies and television networks.	The Afghan Media Resource Center (AMRC) has the largest collection of audiovisual material on Afghanistan from the periods between 1986 and 2012. This collection includes photographs (94,652), video footage (1,175 hours), and audio material (356 hours) of all aspects of Afghan life. The majority of the collection is on the Soviet-Afghan war (1979-1989), the years of the communist regime (1989-1992), and the Civil War period (1992-1994).
Bibliotheca Afghanica of the Swiss Afghanistan-Institut	http://www.afghanistan-institut.ch	English, German	From the private collection of Paul and Veronika Bucherer-Dietschi	The archive houses more than 70,000 historic photographs of Afghanistan. The photographs date back to 1869, with the visit of Amir Shir Ali Khan to India (r. 1863-1879). Some of the photographs in this collection include the British Royal Engineers' photographs of Britain's military activities in the second Anglo-Afghan war (1878-1880) and the Souvenir d'Afghanistan collection of 1924
La bibliothèque numérique kurde	https://bnk.institutkurde.org/?l=en	English and 25+ other languages	Fondation-Institut kurde de Paris	Over 10,000 monographs about the Kurds, published documents, reviews and newspapers, photographs, videos, postcards and posters, as well as audio archives and music recordings.
People's Archive of Rural India	https://ruralindiaonline.org/en/	English, Hindi, Urdu, Bengali, Marathi and Odia	PARI Team & voluntary contribution	PARI hosts and combines video, photo, audio and text archives with focus on the rural parts, peoples, lives, and cultures of India. It is both a living journal and an archive. A library is also available. Story-telling comprises a very big part of the archive.
Collection of The Arab Image Foundation	http://arabimagefoundation.com/	English and Arabic	The AIF [Foundation]	The Arab Image Foundation's evolving collection contains more than 500,000 photographic objects. The work of over 250 amateur photographers and 700 professional photographers and studios, the objects date from the 1860s to the present day, and span 50 countries.
Digital Collections of Koç University	https://librarydigitalcollections.ku.edu.tr/	Turkish and English	Suna Kıraç Library of Koç University	A noteworthy source for Turkish (history) studies, this website provides access to over 210,000 digitized or born-digital images in the Koç University collections featuring prints, photographs, slides, maps, newspapers, posters, postcards, manuscripts, streaming video, and more. The collections consist of the materials of the Koç University Libraries and Archives (AKMED, ANAMED, SKL, and VEKAM), Koç University Faculty and Departments, and projects carried out in partnership with the Koç University Libraries. *Main themes of the content: Anatolian Civilizations, City Collections, Local History and Urban Life, Rare Books and Manuscripts... Turkish cartoon prints collection is also available in the collection.
The Israeli Left Archives	https://search.iisg.amsterdam/Record/COLL00308	Hebrew and English	International Institute of Social History, Amsterdam	An archive devoted mainly to the radical left and the women's peace movement in Israel during the sixties, seventies and the eighties. 1036 leaflets, 567 articles, 383 periodicals, 45 posters and 2785 various documents
The Archive of Irish Left	https://www.leftarchive.ie/	English, Irish	Cedar Lounge Revolution	An online archive of materials relating to the Irish left with documents, leaflets, pamphlets, posters and newspapers from the latter half of the 20th century placed online in PDF format, freely accessible and easily downloadable and reproducible for those who are interested.
The Ashkal Alwan Archive	https://www.ashkalalwan.org/library.php#	English, Arabic	The Lebanese Association for Plastic Arts	The Ashkal Alwan library houses a growing collection of books, catalogs, periodicals, as well as audio-visual material primarily focused on contemporary cultural, artistic, linguistic, and textual practices in Lebanon and beyond. The collection is for reference only and includes material on art history, art theory, art education, architecture, photography, film, media, theatre, performance art, comics, philosophy, psychology, critical and political theory, literature, poetry, and cultural policy.

The Women's Museum of Istanbul	http://www.istanbulkadinmuzesi.org/en	Turkish, English, German and Italian	The Women's Culture Foundation Istanbul (İKKV)	Virtual exhibition on "women who have enriched the city of Istanbul in the fields of culture and the arts. Might be interesting for researchers with focus on women studies. The permanent exhibition focuses on the biographies of women who have broken new ground in the artistic and cultural life of the city.
SARA Distribution (The Kurdish Museum)	http://www.saradistribution.com/commontable.htm	English, Kurdish, Turkish	Goran Candan, SARA Distribution	SARA Distribution was established in 1987 in Stockholm, Sweden. The founder and owner of SARA Distribution (The Kurdish Museum), Goran Candan, has collected rare books, periodicals, artifacts, and music related to Kurds, in Kurdish and many other European and Middle Eastern languages.
The Archives of Palestine Poster Project	https://www.palestineposterproject.org/	English	Dan Walsh	Featuring over 12,000 (!) Palestinian posters dating from 1900 to the present, this archive is the largest such collection in the world. It was started by Dan Walsh as part of his MA thesis, but has continued to grow and develop ever since. It was nominated for UNESCO's Memory of the World prize in 2016-2017. The archive is easy to browse and search, and open to all.
Das Bild des Orients (Bildarchiv)	https://das-bild-des-orientis.info/	German, English	Joachim Gierlichs	Image archive and research platform for the Islamic, Ancient and Christian Orient. More specifically, a specialized analogue and digital image archive, offering a great variety of authentic images of the MENA (Middle East and North Africa) Region for research, publication or private use. Photographs on Islamic applied arts, Ethnographic motives, views on landscape and people are also available.
The Palestinian Oral History Archive	https://libraries.aub.edu.lb/poha/	the website: English, the interviews: Arabic	AUB University Library, Al-Jana, Nakhba Archive	A project to digitize, index, catalog, preserve, and provide access (through a searchable digital platform) to an archival collection of around 1,000 hours of testimonies with first generation Palestinians and other Palestinian communities in Lebanon. POHA documents the life stories of Palestinians residing in refugee camps and different communities in Lebanon. The Archive's main focus is personal accounts surrounding the Nakba, a defining moment in Palestinian history and collective experience. Furthermore, the collection contains life narratives of the pre-Nakba period in pre-1948 Palestine, folktales and songs, as well as stories of the women in Ein el-Helwe camp after its destruction in 1982.
ND-Archiv, 1946-1990	https://www.nd-archiv.de/	German	Neues Deutschland Druckerei und Verlag GmbH	An archive of the SED official party newspaper "Neues Deutschland" from 1946 to 1990. Vollzugriff is only for subscribers, but there is still so much history to discover from the open-to-public Ausgaben.
Open Memory Box, The GDR Video Archive	https://open-memory-box.de	German, English, French, Russian	Alberto Herskovits, Laurence McFalls	The world's largest digitized collection of private narrow films from the GDR and also from other socialist countries from 1947 to 1990. 415 hours in total. 2283 rolls of celluloid film. 149 families from 102 places. No registration needed.
Bildatlas DDR-Kunst	https://www.bildatlas-ddr-kunst.de/	German	Karl-Siegbert Rehberg, TU Dresden and Kunstarchiv Beeskow	Image database, artist interviews, works, collections and personal artist database (more than 2500) from the GDR. It currently has 20,400 works from 162 collections. In addition to the well-known works of "Art in the GDR", there is also a large number of works that were previously largely unknown or were thought to be lost. In addition to documenting the collections, the participating research teams also analyze the forms of image transfer, the "paths of images" into the public collections.
Materialien zur Analyse von Opposition (MAO)	www.mao-projekt.de	German	Dietmar Kesten and Jürgen Schröder	This database mainly contains texts by so-called Maoist groups and other radical left organizations in the Federal Republic of Germany and West Berlin, as well as information about them. The events described in the articles are usually presented from the perspective of these groups. The temporal focus is the boom of the "Maoist" or "Marxist-Leninist movement": early to mid-1970s.
Revolutionary papers	https://www.revolutionarypapers.org/	The website is in English.	Revolutionary Papers is co-led by Dr. Koni Benson (UWC History), Dr. Chana Morgenstern (Cambridge Literature) and Dr. Mahvish Ahmad (LSE Sociology). It is co-sponsored by the Cambridge-Africa ALBORADA Research Fund; Department of Sociology, London School of	Not an archive per se: it is a transnational research collaboration exploring 20th century periodicals of Left, anti-imperial and anti-colonial critical production: newspapers, cultural and literary journals, magazines, manifestos, posters, album covers, newsletters and political pamphlets

			Economics; Center for Humanities Research and Department of History, University of the Western Cape; Global Humanities Initiative, Cambridge University; and the Postcolonial Print Cultures International Research Network. Research Associate is Dr. Mijke van der Drift.
The biggest Russian video archive of documentary and other video chronicles	https://www.net-film.ru/	Russian
South Asian Research & Resource Center	https://sarrc.org.pk/	Urdu, English, Punjabi, Hindi	The SARRC collection has been compiled over fifty years by Ahmad Salim, archivist and former organiser.	SARRC is an archive of documents and other materials preserving Pakistan's progressive political history
Sajjad Zaheer Digital Archive	https://sites.utexas.edu/zaheerarchive/	English, Hindi, Urdu	The Sajjad Zaheer Family, University of Texas and others.	As the personal and working archive of an author, activist and family member, the Sajjad Zaheer Digital Archive is a rich collection of materials from letters to manuscripts to photographs. Containing over 4000 items, the collection documents the life and career of Sajjad Zaheer and highlights contemporaneous writers, politics and the Zaheer family from Lucknow, India.
Digital Archives of 5 Middle Eastern Newspapers	https://www.menalib.de/vifa/fid-lizenzen/middle-eastern-and-north-african-newspapers/	Arabic	MENALIB / FID Nahost	From the Ottoman Empire to the Arab Spring, the countries of the Middle East and North Africa have seen an eventful history. The collection of newspapers from the Middle East and North Africa includes publications from this dynamic region and offers unique insights into the history of each country, as well as a comprehensive overview of important historical events from the late 19th century to the present.
SALT Research Archive - Eleonora Arhelaou	https://archives.saltresearch.org/handle/123456789/210957?locale=en	English, Turkish	SALT Research	An archive that traces the Greek heritage in various districts of Istanbul, especially in Beyoğlu.
Interview Archive of IF DDR Research	https://ifddr.org/interviews/	German, English	Internationale Forschungsstelle DDR (IF DDR)	The IF DDR focuses in particular on internationalism and how state and societal actors of the DDR built relationships with other countries and anti-colonial movements. The DDR's solidarity and support for economic and political sovereignty are still remembered in many countries across Latin America, Africa and Asia. Indeed, the German abbreviation "DDR" often still represents a positive point of reference in these countries, and this is why we use it throughout our multilingual publications.
The Islam Burkina Faso Collection	https://islam.domains.uflib.ufl.edu/s/bf/page/home	English, French	Frédéric Madore	Launched in 2021 by Frédéric Madore, the Islam Burkina Faso Collection is an open access digital database containing over 2,900 archival documents, newspaper articles, Islamic publications of various forms, and photographs on Islam and Muslims in Burkina Faso since the 1960s. The site also indexes over 230 bibliographical references of books, book chapters, book reviews, journal articles, dissertations, theses, and reports on the topic.